A map of the Heathrow Airport area. The M4 motorway runs horizontally across the top. To the north of the M4 are Sipson Lane, Cranford Lane, and Bath Road. To the south are Sipson Road and Cranford Lane. The Sheraton Skyline Hotel is located near the intersection of Sipson Lane and Bath Road. Heathrow Airport is shown at the bottom, with Terminals 1, 2, and 3 to the west and Terminal 4 to the east. Various other roads are labeled, including A408, A3044, A312, and A4. Arrows indicate directions towards Oxford, Windsor, Slough & M25, and London.

Come down the M4 until Junction 4. Take slip road on left, sign posted A4 London. Once on to the A4, the Sheraton Skyline is a quarter of a mile down the road on the left hand side. (First you will see a Texaco gas station and the Phillips building, after Macdonald's, Radisson Edwardian Hotel, Marriott Hotel, and then the Sheraton Skyline.)
